Land and Conflict

When land and resource rights are clear and enforceable, this motivation leads to exploration, use, and sale through ordinary market processes.

Land Tenure

Those who own land in less valuable areas pay less of course. There is still much to learn from these local initiatives, including perhaps how best to define urban environmental problems in their local context.

One of these challenges concerns the ownership of. Competition can occur between any number and type of identity groups, whether based on ethnicity, religion, class, gender, or generation. Paraná producers formed research foundations such as Fundação ABC and FAPA to develop production systems adapted to local conditions and provide outreach and extension services to family farmers.

Some international organizations have established mandatory standards for their projects. All these developments have served to further separate land governance from that for water, rather than combining them.

Governance

In some cases, a land-related event triggers a conflict, even though the conflict was not caused by a land issue, as in Box C.

Manchester University Press

The current system encourages speculators who gain millions for doing nothing and causing land fuelled financial crashes.
