Drama — Sociological Documentaries and Films — Popular Sociology

The period between the First and Second World Wars witnesses a temporary experiment with the community as collective hero: Goldmann's example is. It identified 'structural homologies' between the Jansenist 'tragic vision', the textual structures of Pascal's Pensées and Racine's plays, and the social position of the seventeenth-century 'noblesse de robe'.

Victor Turner

The central novelty of Eagleton's Criticism and Ideology was its argument that literature could be understood as 'producing' ideology, in the sense of performing it.
