Many memoirs of British participants in particular are much less subtle than the official minutes of the summit meetings about the tensions, distrust, animosity, and even ill will that the allies nursed and that sometimes spilled over in heated exchanges.

Global Maritime History Book Review: Kelleher Alliance of

This is a story that needs your attention. During deliberations over whether to drop the atomic bomb on Japan, McCloy advocated a diplomatic solution instead. The fifth chapter looks specifically at piracy as a business, a commercial venture that involved pirates, their associates, and their families.
