Translation of daigaku

They are summoned by using their respective Discs in the Shinkenmaru. Though successfully leading to the destruction of the Ayakashi, Ryunosuke is still yelled at by his teammates for such a stupid idea.

A Seigaku Tradition

In 1336, during the upheaval between the and the , the temple burned down, but was later rebuilt. However, on's improvement in the use of wordplay, she passed the Disk to him, giving him control of the Kabuto Origami. It can fire the Kabuto Hou, a flurry of cyan and orange laser beams from the visible barrels in its helmet.

Daitoku

Kyoto: The Ponsonby Memorial Society. The wooden beam above the doors has a painting of a hare. A moon-viewing party is held in the garden every autumn for three days, around the date of the harvest moon; it features costumed dancers and musicians and dragon boats in the style of the Heian period.

Samurai Gattai DaiTenku

The hawk painted with Indian ink is a unique motif. Its finisher is the Kabuto Daikaiten Hou , Great Revolving Cannon , where the Gattai kneels, the helmet closes up, then it spins rapidly, gathering light orange energy as it does.

Samurai Gattai DaiTenku

It can shoot a red beam from it's head piece and can fire blue energy bullets from the Kabuto and the Kajiki Origami. The Tora Origami also has a Disc-like feature in its body for mobility to limit the destruction the Tora Origami can bring unintentionally. Excerpts translated from French by DR Siefskin.

Daikaku

The main images are of the , centered on.

Daikaku

I had thought that here only one chrysanthemum can grow.
