Clos Sainte

Both chapels are decorated with 20th century mosaics, Below the monastery a 'Stations of the Cross' pathway leads to an ancient water source, with the water being attributed healing powers for eye problems. He wanted a son but when his sick, blind daughter was born he ordered her to be killed. It is a drystone wall consisting of around 300,000 large blocks of stone; it is between 1.

Mount Sainte

Construction of the Church was begun about the year 1268. Just as her father was about to seize her the rock miraculously opened and hid Saint-Odile. After her death in 720 her tomb became a popular pilgrimage site, and Sainte-Odile became patron saint of Alsace.

Mont

Adalric qui regrettait peu à peu les fureurs de sa vie passée lui demanda de revenir et lui fit don de son château de Hohenbourg pour y créer un couvent dont elle devint la première abbesse.

St. Odilia

However, Mont Sainte Odile also welcomes a number of non-believers who simply wish to profit from the natural woodlands surrounding the area. Other information On a sadder note, it was near here that an aeroplane crashed in 1992 - the crash of Mont-Sainte-Odile - killing 87 passengers. What can you see at Mont Sainte-Odile? Mont-Sainte-Odile is the site of an important monastery, situated in a picturesque location on the top of a mountain in the Vosges and a few kilometres north-west of and south-west of in Alsace.
