Of course, all of this is filtered through the lens of his own presuppositions, and isn't usually especially prescient except for his recognition of technological unemployment as a coming problem ; but even when you disagree with him, he can be intellectually stimulating for your own thoughts. The novel was frank about the Americans' conflicting, sometimes negative attitudes toward their Chinese allies.

So why is this book only a 4? Yet Goldwater painted as a killer by the Democrats could not bring himself to hurt an individual; urged by his young men to hammer the issue, to make the most of it as if a gift had been given him, he simply refused. The former President said he could not come out publicly, he had to preserve his influence. But the two are still intimately related, and the political sphere matters intensely in terms of what kind of life we and others are able to lead.
