He holds an interdisciplinary Ph. Realists tend to believe that whatever we believe now is only an approximation of reality but that the accuracy and fullness of understanding can be improved.

Roy Bhaskar

Modern and postmodern works, absurd, nonsensical and mind-numbing, have taken control of the world's formerly great art institutions. So many throughout history have taken so much time in trying to define what is beautiful and to differentiate between good and bad aesthetics and perhaps even more important, between what is right and what is wrong; a dilemma that confronts us constantly every day of our lives. Felice Carena was born in 1880 and studied with G.
