Presenter View automatically adapts to your projection set-up, and you can even use it on a single monitor. Themes now come with variations, which make it simpler to hone in on the look you want, and when you're working with others, you can add comments to ask questions and get feedback. For more information see the following Web site: If You Need Technical Support If you need assistance installing the Year 2000 Update, call Microsoft Product Support at 425 635-7056 and inform the service representative that you require assistance with a year 2000 related issue.

I've already searched via torrents, though could not find the 7. Even though these were distinct applications, rather than one single monolithic program, they shared a similar user interface, integrated well together and shared the ability to embed documents from one application in the documents of another.
