

Cathey census records, 1790-1850 - a transcription of all the Cathey families listed on the 1790 through 1850 census records

M.A. Grant - Rushing Family of Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee

Description: -

Tennessee -- Genealogy.
North Carolina -- Genealogy.

Cathey family.Cathey census records, 1790-1850 - a transcription of all the Cathey families listed on the 1790 through 1850 census records

-Cathey census records, 1790-1850 - a transcription of all the Cathey families listed on the 1790 through 1850 census records
Notes: Includes index.

This edition was published in 2008

Filesize: 56.86 MB

Tags: #Sandhills

Sandhills

That as Captain of the Ranger in Quiberon Bay on the 14th day of February, 1778, he claimed and obtained from Monsieur Le Motte Piequet the first salute to the flag of the infant republic from a foreign power. Cumberland County itself was formed in 1754 from Bladen County. Hornback w m Hickman John George Parker Everett James Simson Moses Skeen David Smith Henry Se1 vege w m Atkinson w m Brazelton Thomas Ellis John Cop~land Nathan Currey Andrew B.

McDuffie Y

Due to age and related problems, I am cutting back my research and contacts. There are White and Hill descendants of a W. Such records must be considered cautiously given the shifting nature of ethnic identities and the early state's motivations to reclassify or undercount minorities, but they do indicate the continued presence of a Native American population in the Fort Bragg area.

Full Copy

. Renno James McClester Alexander Newman Catherine McCuistion Hannah Frazer Sallie Pangle Elizabeth Hays K. Any info as to his name or her maiden name would be great.

Full text of Pettigrew

Twelve local men agreed to guarantee Campbell's yearly salary of one hundred pounds paid in lawful North Carolina currency Meyer 1961: 114. Morgan, Marion, Marshall, and Madison Counties 14.

. Sawyer died in 1826 at age fifty-eight, and Margaret died in 1827 at age nineteen.

Full text of Pettigrew

The census provided the age ranges of family members; names and exact dates of birth of Alexander's family members were obtained from other records.

Full Copy

Corn was grown primarily for home use and for animal feed. Witness Thomas Newcomb, Margaret Brummel. June 14, 1752, at Sheffield, Mass.

State Censuses

This Borrer history features the Borrer, Neely, Williams, Gitchell, Green, Burns, and Lackey families and is the first book written about Borrer descendants. Neill Sinclair married Elizabeth Patterson 1816-1892; daughter of Daniel Patterson and Margaret Graham.

Related Books

- Portable Edmund Wilson
- Líderes indios o intermediarios indigenistas? - dinámicas internas y externas en el caso mexicano
- Paul Zsolnay Verlag - von der Gründung bis zur Rückkehr aus dem Exil
- Vermischte Schriften botanischen Inhalts, von Hugo von Mohl...
- Messico, 1900-1930 - storia, Chiesa e popoli indigeni