¶ When Asenath heard Joseph speak these words she was sore vexed, even unto tears; wherefore Joseph took pity upon her and blessed her, laying his hand upon her head. And she hurried and came down by the staircase from her storey at the top; and she came to her father and mother and greeted them.

Potipherah then returns from his country house, where he has been spending the interval, and states that he will summon the guests to the marriage-feast immediately, but Joseph says that he must return to Pharaoh and obtain Asenath's hand from him.

The Story of Asenath

And Pharaoh celebrated their wedding with a banquet and much merry-making for seven days; and he invited all the chief men in the land of Egypt.
