

Report of the Committee on the Application of Conventions and Recommendations, International Labour Conference, fifty-seventh session, Geneva, 1972.

ILO - By Theme or Subject Matter

Description: -

-Report of the Committee on the Application of Conventions and Recommendations, International Labour Conference, fifty-seventh session, Geneva, 1972.

-Report of the Committee on the Application of Conventions and Recommendations, International Labour Conference, fifty-seventh session, Geneva, 1972.

Notes: Includes index.

This edition was published in 1972

Filesize: 56.710 MB

Tags: #Bibliography #for #Research #on #International #Human #Rights #Law

By Theme or Subject Matter

To develop and encourage appropriate modalities of communication and dialogue between Roma communities and central and local authorities. For text of General Recommendation, see SELF-DETERMINATION.

By Theme or Subject Matter

European Convention on Human Rights: Texts and Documents H. Further, the independent authorities in the States parties that are responsible for supervising prison institutions should include members who have expertise in the field of racial discrimination and sound knowledge of the problems of racial and ethnic groups and the other vulnerable groups referred to in the last paragraph of the preamble; when necessary, such supervisory authorities should have an effective visit and complaint mechanism.

Bibliography for Research on International Human Rights Law

United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, Conclusions on the International Protection of Refugees: Adopted by the Executive Committee of the UNHCR Programme Geneva: UN, 1991.

Strikes in Essential Services in Kenya: The Doctors, Nurses and Clinical Officers' Strikes Revisited and Lessons from South Africa

As regards persons placed in administrative holding centres or in holding areas in airports, States parties should ensure that they enjoy sufficiently decent living conditions. Conversely, it should be the right and duty of any police official or State employee to refuse to obey orders or instructions that require him or her to commit violations of human rights, particularly those based on racial discrimination.

Strikes in Essential Services in Kenya: The Doctors, Nurses and Clinical Officers' Strikes Revisited and Lessons from South Africa

Steven Perkins, Guide to Researching International Human Rights Law, 24 Case Western J. Cree advocates came into the hallways during the negotiation to share what was happening inside and to receive advice on legal language to insert into the convention text.

ILC87

International Committee of the Red Cross, Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949 and Additional Protocols of 8 June 1977: Signatures, Ratifications, Accessions and Successions as at 30 June 1993 Geneva: ICRC, 1993. Articles on activities of the President and Secretary of State, treaty information, articles, excerpts of speeches, and an annual index; available on LEXIS. TO THE COMPETENT AUTHORITIES OF THE CONVENTIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS ADOPTED BY THE INTERNATIONAL LABOUR CONFERENCE ARTICLE 19 OF THE CONSTITUTION Observations and Information a Failure to submit The Worker members referred to paragraphs 231 and 232 of the report of the Committee of Experts regarding the obligation to submit adopted instruments to the competent authorities.

25 Years of ILO Convention 169

Included are the International Bill of Human Rights, dates of the conventions' entry into force and a chronological list of instruments in the order of their adoption.

Related Books

- Spanish
- Kommunizm i upravlenie obshchestvennymi protsessami.
- Healthy homes, healthy kids - protecting your children from everyday environmental hazards
- Vom Stadtwerk zum Elektrizitätsgrossunternehmen
- Ming Qing xing ai xiao shuo lun gao.