House of Representatives, Debates, 18 May 1972 :: Historic Hansard

Our reasons for proposing this course are set out fully in our report. I ask for leave of the House to make a short statement in connection with the report. I have the gravest doubts whether the legislation is valid because under the conventions to which we are a party the contiguous zone does not refer to fishing.

House of Representatives, Debates, 18 May 1972 :: Historic Hansard

Mr Clyde Cameron: HINDMARSH, SOUTH AUSTRALIA · ALP — Yes. I turn to the first question. The delegation should, in any case, include, in the capacity of delegate or adviser, persons from provinces with substantial francophone populations.

Canada, Secretary of State for External Affairs, Federalism and International Conferences on Education, by Mitchell Sharp (1968)

To me that is the key to this whole debate. Is the Commonwealth legislation valid or not? Therefore I have some doubts, and I will listen with great interest to the lawyers who will talk on this Bill, as to whether in fact the Bill goes far enough.

Assistant Secretary Dr. A. Wess Mitchell's remarks at the Joint Statement with Minister of Foreign Affairs Mikheil Janelidze (Apr 30)

I suggest that the honourable member for Hindmarsh proceed to make his personal explanation. If the honourable gentleman has a specific problem relating to Western Australia he should know that the Labor Government in that State has not made any approach to the Commonwealth up to the present. Mr GRAHAM: North Sydney — Normally I would take no part in this debate as I am accustomed to some of the histrionics that one sees from time to time from members of the Opposition.

Statement by the Honourable Helena Guergis, Secretary of State (Foreign Affairs and International Trade) (Sport), on the Death of Don Wittman

The Departments of Shipping and Transport, Customs and Excise, Navy, Interior, Health, Primary Industry - all relevant departments interested in the problem of coastal surveillance - met during that month.

Statement by the Honourable Helena Guergis, Secretary of State (Foreign Affairs and International Trade) (Sport), on the Death of Don Wittman

Mr ANTHONY: CP — I would be happy to answer this question on behalf of my colleague, the Minister for Primary Industry, who is in the House now and was on his way when the question was being asked. It has been presenting progressive reports to the Government.
