The after-effects of the bombing, as well as those of World War II in general, are a central theme.

Hiroshima: Plot Overview

Automatically, he begins helping people. Miss Toshiko Sasaki is a young clerk whose leg is fractured in the blast.

Grove Atlantic

There was no question of its fictional nature; even the bell of the title was a figment of Hersey's imagination. Young men died by the thousands trying to deliver their bombs on target, only to have that ordnance miss by miles. The Emperor composed a surrender message, to be broadcast the next day.

Book Summary

Many blame their own country for putting them in a situation where such an outcome was even considered. Few writers have ever testified more vividly to mankind's indomitable potential for courage. Many of the victims are too weak or wounded to move, and in the absence of any official help, people like Father Kleinsorge and Mr.
