Of these the Science and Art Department, with its head-quarters at the South Kensington Museum, is at once the best known and the most active ; and to its energy are mainly due those successes in great international competitions which have been achieved by British industry and manufactures.

News

It is to the heroic songs of the day that we must at this period mainly look for the history of manners and of convivial life. He passed his time in the company that was highest both in rank and wit, from which even his obstinate sobriety did not exclude him. As to the two requirements about rhyming, a ballade requires six 1 rhymes.

The World Dream

The nature and impact of the industrial revolution remains a major preoccupation. Author's interleaved copy, with many of his ms.
