The final reason was the pragmatic observation that the cost of war was greater than the money needed to negotiate and implement treaties. First Printing: 350 copies, author-signed and numbered Order on eBay or through email.

Indian Peace Medal, Thomas Jefferson, United States, 1801

Rich seems to truly be one of the few people who knows — really knows — about. Seems roughly five or six years ago someone began setting the copies of peace medals on these collars.

Jefferson's Instructions

Clements Library for the exhibit. As Saginaw Ojibway leader Ogemagigido 1795-1840 said: We are here to smoke the pipe of peace, but not to sell our lands. Not contented with this, I urged you for more until you gave and I again demanded more until you had none left.

Lewis When an Ojibway leader appeared wearing a British medal, it always caused a problem. In fact, I love researching, including asking people who specialize and know more than I do. The Corps of Discovery—an idea nurtured by Thomas Jefferson for more than two decades, infused with his dedication to Enlightenment science, and powered by his vision for western America—had its instructions, its mission, and its historical burden.
