Convention adjourned till to-morrow morning eight o'clock.

Territorial Assembly Territorial Government

All this was accomplished without the firing of a gun, without a demand for surrender on the part of the insurrectionary forces until they had been converted into a de facto government by the recognition of the American minister with American troops, then ready to interfere in the event of an attack. The foregoing pages are respectfully submitted as the connected report indicated in your instructions. Generally, members who have been in Congress longer have greater seniority and therefore greater power.
