Dwight D. Eisenhower

In the early 1970s, Charlotte Clark, education specialist, and I assisted Endacott in developing a more comprehensive history of the house and the grounds for use as a training guide for the docents in the Eisenhower Family Home. I saw the main street lined with stately historic homes boasting wide front porches, perfect for an afternoon glass of lemonade. Eisenhower Presidential Library and Museum in Abilene.

Dwight D. Eisenhower Presidential Library

Lincoln Grade School was located on the west, across the street, and several somewhat similar residences stood on the south.

Dwight D. Eisenhower Presidential Library

Just a top-rate museum and well worth the drive up from Wichita. Some even include one of their homes, so you can get a taste of their childhood or the private life of the leader of the country.

Dwight D. Eisenhower Library and Museum (Abilene)

Presidential Libraries help us learn more about our leaders, the position of the presidency, and the American experience overall. Initially, Presidential Libraries sound kind of boring, right? Moving around the world, while increasing in experience and rank. He was promoted to brigadier general in 1941.

Dwight D. Eisenhower Library and Museum (Abilene)

Eisenhower was the only general to serve as president during the 20th century.
