Northern Plains Tribes

The topography includes coastal plains, rolling uplands known as the Piedmont, and a portion of the Appalachian Mountains; of these, the Piedmont was most densely populated. Early Social and Economic Life The Stoney-Nakoda bands, commonly composed of extended families, lived along Alberta's Rocky Mountain foothills from the headwaters of the Athabasca River south to Chief Mountain in Montana.

Indian Tribes of Canada

Excellent research or reading copy. These have had historic and ongoing impacts on generations of Indigenous peoples. The ethnologists, archaeologists and anthropologists who have written about these cultural regions were often not Indigenous themselves.

Plains Indian

The three divisions are the Dakota, the Nakota, and the Lakota named here for their dialects.
