The Great Haydn Quartets: Their Interpretation

Filesize: 10.89 MB

The Opus 76 quartets were published in 1799 when Haydn was well over 60 years old. The sixteenth notes trade off to the 2nd violin, culminating in an all-instrument in measure 140.

Tea Times, Tyes and Greens, Haydn's late quartets

It ends in D major. Use this mechanism to look at the other paragraphs here and elsewhere. The Creation is a work with great religious and entertainment value.

The Great Haydn Quartets: Their Interpretation by Hans Keller

You may use each word or phrase only once.

The String Quartets of Joseph Haydn

Looking at this movement one can see that while the first violin has an elaborate melodic line, the other three voices play repetitive sequences of simple accompaniment.

The String Quartets of Joseph Haydn

This is in the second sentence of paragraph 3. Haydn did everything first and better. And most probably, it was by pure chance the quartet emerged.

Tea Times, Tyes and Greens, Haydn's late quartets

The finales are full of energy and grace.

Haydn's String Quartets and the 20th century interpretation style

Haydn soon shifted his emphasis in composition to reflect this fewer operas, and more quartets and symphonies and he negotiated with multiple publishers, both Austrian and foreign.
