Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure

When taking a deposition on oral examination, the proponent of the question may complete or adjourn the examination before he applies for an order. However, if the case is returned to a lower court after the judgment or order upon appeal becomes final, the motion may then be made in such lower court.

Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure

The motion shall state the grounds therefor and the relief or order sought.

Indiana Estate Planning and Probate Practice

The official shall indicate upon the return whether the person has received the summons and been allowed an opportunity to retain counsel. If he does not so respond, summary judgment, if appropriate, shall be entered against him.

The probate law and practice of the state of Indiana (1931 edition)

Each claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence and each defense other than denials may be stated in a separate count or defense whenever a separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matters set forth. A party who moves for judgment on the evidence at the close of the evidence offered by an opponent may offer evidence in the event that the motion is not granted, without having reserved the right so to do and to the same extent as if the motion had not been made. When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise comply with these rules and that fact is made to appear by affidavit or otherwise, the party may be defaulted by the court.

Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure

Subject to its sound discretion and on motion of any party or of its own initiative, the court may order parties dropped or added at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just and will avoid delay. In all cases a judgment by default is subject to the limitations of Rule 54 C.

State

If a mailing address is not furnished or cannot be determined or if service by mail or other public means is returned without acceptance, the complaint and summons shall promptly be delivered to the sheriff or his deputy who, unless otherwise directed, shall serve the summons. Any recovery by the subrogor to the extent that such recovery is owned by a subrogee shall be made as representative and trustee for the subrogee.
