Reminiscences of Denton County, Texas

At both places there is a rock bottom. We appreciate your support of the preservation process, and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant.

History and Reminiscences of Denton County (Classic Reprint)

Courts were to be held in the eastern part at Bonham and in the western part at Seamon Bradley's residence, which was near where the southeast corner of Grayson County was established. To begin with, railroads lowered the cost of transportation as much as 90%.

First Settlers of Denton County, Texas

A telegraph line, installed in 1867, connected Pilot Point to Sanger, Sherman, Bolivar, and Jacksboro. The Pioneer Settlers and Settlements, and the Roll Call 27 V. Equally important, although less capable of exact measurement, was the ferment of ideas that came from faculty and students.

History and Reminiscences of Denton County: Bates, Edmond Franklin 1851

Ranching, cattle industry, cowboys, outlaws, Indian problems, settlers, and general history of the county. The German Community in Pilot Point developed due to the cheap land, and because many of the German settlers already had family living in the surrounding area. Each page is checked manually before printing.

HISTORY AND REMINISCENCES OF DENTON COUNTY by Ed. F. Bates

This is NOT a retyped or an ocr'd reprint. Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public. Many of the earliest books, particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before, are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive.

Smallholder County: History of Denton County

Because the Denton County courthouse burned in 1876, only the final land titles from earlier years still exist, reconstructed from records in the state capital. Were destroyed Christmas week, 1875, when the courthouse burned.
