Motoring Offences

An expiation notice can be issued for a variety of reasons. It is enough that it is received by a member of his staff impliedly authorised to receive it.

Driving offences

The amount of people caught speeding on the A9 has increased over the last few years and while the severity of each case varies they all require input from a road traffic specialist to assist with your cases. Representing Drivers in Ayr I have helped clients in and around the Ayr area to fight their charges.

Notice of Intended Prosecution

Drug driving offences are also considered. We will always give you honest advice on your case.

Road Traffic

This is because the letter usually also warns the driver that they may be prosecuted for Dangerous Driving in Scotland or Careless Driving in Scotland.

Notice of Intended Prosecution

Such a certificate is deemed under sub-section 4 to have been so signed unless the contrary is proved.

LTA Offences & Fines

This should be done with the approval of the court and in order to assist in determining the question of disqualification.
