THE FIRST TAMWORTHS IN THE UNITED STATES The first Tamworths in the United States were those imported by Thomas Bennett of Rossville, Illinois in 1882. Mercian power began to decline after the death of King Offa and by the 10th century it lost its independence, becoming part of the Kingdom of Wessex to create the Kingdom of England. The tribes initially ruled through unions and alliances of leading families and there is evidence of contact with families across England and also back in the Anglo-Saxon homelands.
