Well over a million people attended across all the Olympic events at Wembley Park.

Jigsaw collection

William Heath Robinson was an English cartoonist, illustrator and artist, best known for his drawings of outlandish and whimsically elaborate machines. The plans for the redevelopment were approved by the council in June 2004.

Empire Exhibition

Like much of the rest of West London, most of Wembley Park and its environs was built over, largely with relatively low-density suburban housing, by 1939.

The Flying Scotsman

Whatever the reason for its popularity, the Leeds Model Company, Milbro, Bassett-Lowke, Exley, Ace Trains and Hornby all produced models in 0 gauge, while Cimco, Trix and Tri-ang produced 00 scale models.
