Your views could help shape our site for the future. English achievements in exploration were noteworthy in the Elizabethan era. Moreover, in exceptional instances they were capable of exercising political power, learning and creativity outside the domestic sphere.

Early Modern

Elizabeth was aware of the discord that could result from a foreign marriage, so she was reluctant to choose a husband from another country. Events held at a salon provided a forum for introducing new knowledge to a nonlearned audience.

Category: Catholic

When a mother of young children died, her children were reared by their father and his female kin, his servants, or his new wife.

Women in the Renaissance and Reformation

Figures varied considerably between regions, but over 50 per cent of parish clergy swore their loyalty to the Constitution. They provide a window into real experiences. In the 1620s, 1630s, and 1640s—a wartime period in France called the Fronde—the femme forte strong woman emerged in.
