Goal 2: Zero hunger

To free all people of Bangladesh from the burden of food insecurity and undernutrition, the battle must be fought on many fronts simultaneously, with sufficient funding and accountability, the report states.

Food, nutrition, and hunger in Bangladesh (Book, 1997) [public-docs.talentcoach.ir]

On the basis of seasonality, the proportion of hungry children was around 8% during post- aman, 10% during monsoon and 10% during post- aus season. The NFP and POA are currently under revision by the Ministry of Food Osmani et al. Child stunting is widespread; about 41 percent of children below 5 years of age suffer from stunted growth.

A Closer Look at Hunger and Undernutrition in Bangladesh

Ramganj upazila nirbahi officer Muntasir Jahan told New Age that she was distributing five to six kg rice and some other food items including potato and oil among the jobless people. This is in part because several innovative development and food security programs have been fostered in Bangladesh. Ballard, Terri, Jennifer Coates, Anne Swindale, and Megan Deitchler.
