The musicianship is good but Alan Park and Martin Griffiths are the two most prominent characters in the band.

Beggars Opera (band)

The track starts with a short intro and then directly pass to the central section with a tremendous bass and drums work, the keyboards by Alan Park still show that classic sound of the late 60's but also a Baroque touch more consistent with the 70's. Good luck attend us all. Please see all photos for condition.

Beggars Opera (band)

It explores a cynical world where capitalist greed, crime and social inequality are the norm. Wild was one of the most famous lawbreakers of the period, and became a folk hero for his shameless manipulation of the legal system, which enabled him to move in legitimate circles while still controlling a vast network of criminal gangs.
