In every culture and time, he speculated, there has always been a small but energized minority of men and women who deliberately avoided conventional orgasm in order to lengthen and broaden their sexual experience. There is a line of commentary which says that simple awareness of cultural diversity is somewhat subversive, since culture often operates most powerfully when its embedded assumptions are either invisible or taken as basic truths built into the structure of the universe.

Thinking Out Aloud: The Spirit and the Flesh

The small town is located in a U. Young transplants -- surfers, hippies, families, fugitives and Vietnam war veterans -- to live at Taylor Camp, free from society's norms.

Reinventing Sex

Which suggests that some notion of a specific variety of the human is appropriate, since the berdache and contemporary gay males grew up in very different cultures with very different cultural assumptions. Noyes could often be seen through the open door of his tower bedroom reading from his favorite work of erotic literature, the King James Bible. The remarks I have reported took up about half an hour; and now, each one in the circle having spoken, Mr.
