But from now on you will see that there enters into my story a new note. I answer that of course I will.

The Brass Check; A Study of American Journalism (Paperback)

I will not waste space discussing this question, save to point out that the newspaper reviewers had set the rules of the game — that love and beauty in art were heeded only in connection with personalities and sensation; so, in order to project love and beauty upon the world, the young author had provided the personalities and sensation.
