Industry and Economy during the Civil War (U.S. National Park Service)

Many were forced to lay off employees, and in particular, let go skilled technicians and engineers. Pawnee men, in particular, specialized in creating bear claw necklaces made from the long, broad claws of grizzly bears that once roamed the Central and Eastern Plains and guided the wearer during warfare, treaty negotiations, and other important events. They also could us it pretty well, too, and the vaquero is a good man to watch today in studying horse handling and roping.

Civil War

The two had traveled from Augusta, where Caldwell's parents lived, to Arkansas, documenting sharecroppers and others along the way. Compounding the problem was the ever-increasing number of refugees flooding into cities; food distribution became increasingly harder, and at times, impossible.

Art in Georgia from 1895 to 1960

Joe Beeler thoroughly researched this piece for historical accuracy. Moreover, since few manufactures existed to tax under an internal revenue system such as the US government adopted, the Confederacy was cut off from deriving any considerable revenue from indirect taxation.

Civil War Timeline

Now we know enlisted infantrymen were not issued revolvers but enlisted cavalrymen were.
